WHO

is IN YOUR FAMILY?

A family tree is a chart used to represent family relationships.

DRAW your family tree.

INTERVIEW a grown-up member of your family to find out more about them.

INTERVIEW

You could ask about:

- what it was like for them growing up
- what family means to them
- what their parents were like

WRITE your notes here

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There is no handwriting or other markings on the paper.

WHAT

DOES FAMILY MEAN TO YOU?

BRAINSTORM a set of words
which represent what family means to you.

FAMILY

WRITE a letter to someone in your family. Tell them what they mean to you or thank them for something they did for you.

A large rectangular area for writing, enclosed by a decorative border. The border features ornate corner pieces at each of the four corners, connected by a double-line inner border and a single-line outer border. The writing area is filled with horizontal lines for text.

DRAW a crest that represents your family.

WHERE does your family live now?

WHAT motivated them to live there?

WHERE would your family live if they could live anywhere in the world?

WHY?

WHEN

DID YOU JOIN YOUR FAMILY?

CREATE a timeline of important events in your own life that relate to you and your family. This could be the birth of a sibling, moving house, or getting a new pet.

NOW

BIRTH

RESEARCH what happened the year and day you were born. What significant events took place? How have these events effected your family's life?

I was born on the _____ of _____, _____.

(day) (month) (year)

WHY

is YOUR FAMILY IMPORTANT TO YOU?

WRITE a poem to express your feelings about your family.

A large rectangular writing area with a decorative border. The border is composed of multiple thin horizontal lines at the top and bottom, and vertical lines on the sides. At each of the four corners, there is a decorative flourish or scrollwork element. The interior of the rectangle is filled with horizontal lines, providing a guide for writing.

Why do some animals have strong family bonds while others do not?

PICK 2 animals and compare and contrast their needs to find out why some need families.
